Please

Please, follow these steps before posting:

The link to this page is also a decent way to give hints for posters, that may (willingly or unwillingly) disrespect these roules:

Asking questions

1. Please look at http://www.ucapps.de again. Maybe you find your answer on another subpage!

2. Please search the wiki: http://www.midibox.org/dokuwiki/doku.php.

3. Please search the forum: http://www.midibox.org/forum/ Go to the index-page to make sure you search the whole forum and not only the topic you're currently in.

4. Please read the answers carefully. Then wait a bit and read the answer again.

5. Please search uCapps, the forum and the wiki again, varying your search phrase.

6. You're welcome to post your question ;)

- If you begin “I searched … and … but found nothing” you will get plenty of friendly help, even for obviously overseen informations.
- Be as short as possible, but also as precise as possible.
- If you changed something simultaneously but don't think it has something to do: mention it, maybe it is related!
- Shorten your Code-Snippets by leaving out unnecessary parts (if you cannot decide what's unnecessary, leave it).

7. If you put your knowledge to a wiki-site afterwards, you will surely have the respect and the honor of being a well-liked member of the midibox community :)
